Parks and Recreation Master Plan Update. The last city of Glendale Parks and Recreation Master Plan was adopted in February 2002. Since that time, many changes have occurred within the community and surrounding areas. This update will result in a detailed "road map" that will identify community priorities for recreation and park facilities, as well as outline a plan of action. Input from local interest groups, community organizations and businesses, public officials and private citizens will be critical to help establish priorities for current and future parks and recreation services, programs and facilities offered within the city of Glendale.

Join us to help shape the future of recreation programs and the parks system! The next meeting for the Glendale Parks & Recreation Department Master Plan Update will be held at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, September 22 at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St. Click here for more information on the master plan process.

Permit '101' Training for Home Remodelers. Homeowners will learn how to save money on home improvement projects by taking advantage of available rebates and following the DO's and DON'Ts of the permit process in an upcoming free permit 101 class being offered by the city of Glendale.

To help raise awareness of the permit process and educate on how to go green while remodeling, experts from Glendale's Building Safety Department will teach residents everything they need to know about getting construction permits, why they're necessary and the possible costs associated with various home improvement projects.

Participants will learn about everything from minor remodels to room additions and solar-powered systems. A part of the class will educate homeowners on where they can find the best rebates and incentives for everything from energy efficient appliances and windows to solar panels.

The class is Wednesday, September 15, from 6-7:30 p.m. at Glendale City Hall, 5850 W. Glendale Ave., second floor, room 2A. There is no cost and free parking is available in the adjacent garage. To reserve a spot in the class, call 623-930-2800. Read more.

Adaptive Recreation. The Glendale Parks & Recreation Department offers a variety of activities specially designed for individuals with physical, mental, emotional or social disabilities. Some of the upcoming activities and events include: the Fall Bowling Bonanza, Flag Football, Special Olympics Softball, a Sock Hop Dance in September, and a Goulies Dance in October. For more information about these activities, click here or call 623-930-4333.

Flu Shots and Blood Pressure Checks Available at Foothills. The Foothills Recreation & Aquatics Center, 5600 W. Union Hills Dr., will host Walgreens to administer flu shots and Midwestern University for blood pressure checks as part of its commitment to help build a healthier community.

The flu shots will be available from 8 a.m. to noon, September 10 and 14 and from 4 to 8 p.m., September 21. The shots, for ages 18 and older, are $29.99; they are free for people with Medicare, Cigna, United Health Care and Medco health plans. Schedule an appointment by calling 623-930-4600 or stop by the Foothills center front desk. Walk-ins will also be accepted.

Blood pressure checks will be available from 3 to 5 p.m., September 15. This is offered free and is open to the public with no appointment needed.

Northern Avenue Storm Drain Project Update.

West of 61st Avenue: Restrictions continue for storm drain pipe inspection just west of and through the 61st and Northern Avenue intersection.

59th Avenue: Crews continue work north of Northern on 59th Avenue for storm drain lateral installation. Next week, traffic will be shifted to the west so that crews can work on the remaining lateral and catch basin located on the northeast corner of the intersection. The work on the northeast corner is estimated to take approximately two weeks to complete.

For up to date information on the Northern Avenue Storm Drain Project, call the project hotline at 1-877-203-0042 or click here for general information on all Glendale construction projects.
